Here we are almost ready to end these so called "best years." As the time slowly passed by we found who our real friends were, we looked forward to the weekends, and we had a few bad times that came along with the good, but most of all we looked forward to graduation.

But now is the time to say goodbye and remember these painful years of growing up. Soon everyone will be going their own ways hoping to fulfill their dreams, things will never be the same without these people that we've spent so much of our time with.

Good luck to all in reaching your highest goals. 1985 will be a year worth reminiscing all the tears and laughter we all shared.

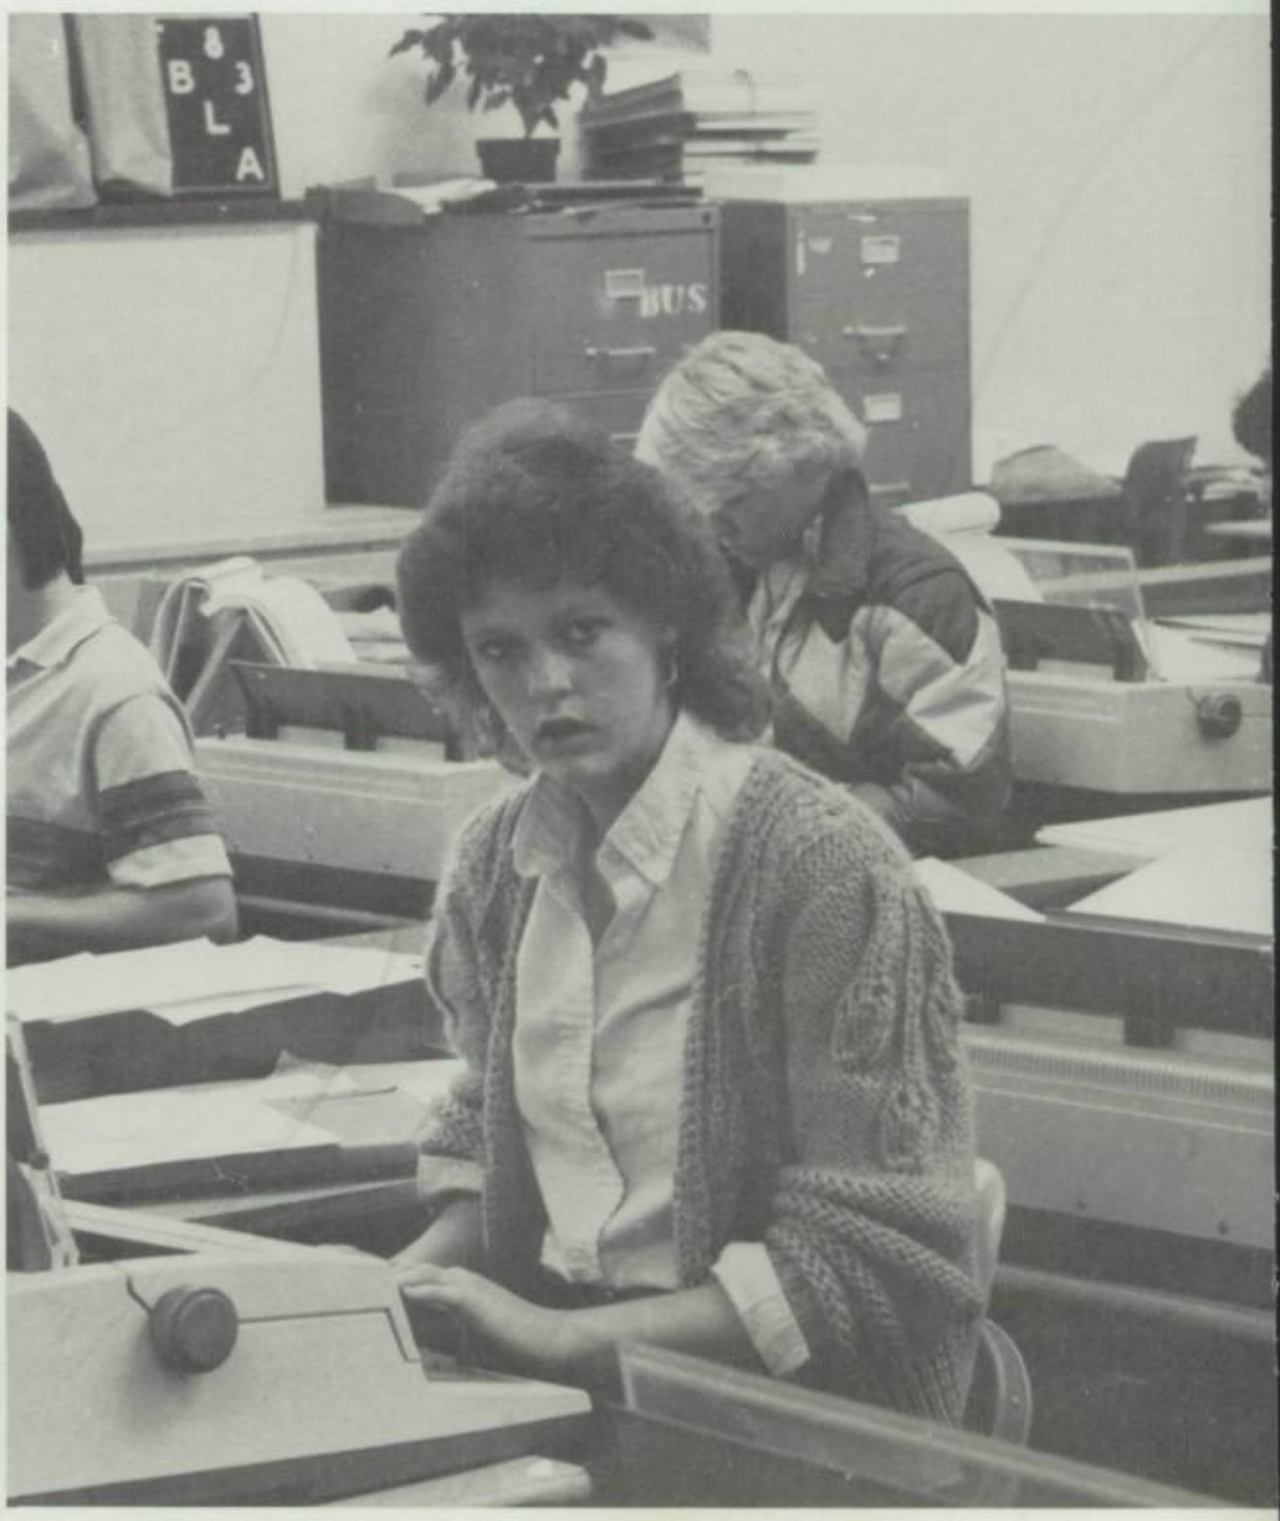
BUSINESS

Business Classes at Flag-High gave students a chance to study business skills which open doors to many careers. These include Typing I and II, Shorthand I and II, Accounting, Record Keeping, Business Law, Marketing, Typing 1A, and Vocational Office Procedure (VOP). These classes also helped some students in their current jobs. Flag-High also offers on-the-job training such as; ICE, COE, DE, and HERO. These classes allow students to work during the regular 8:30-3:05 school day and receive credit.

The Head of the Business department is Mrs. Sherman the rest consisting of; Mr. Compton, Mrs. Kempton, Mr. Meyer, Mr. Sullivan, Mrs. Lauman, Mrs. Arnote, and Mrs. English.

1. Nursing class. 2. Mrs. Sherman, Sam Sanchez, and Becky Howell. 3. Susie Flood. 4. Todd Rirden. 5. Mrs. Arnote and a student. 6. Lavonda Turner. 7. Brian Divine and Marlena Robinette.



Mrs. Arnote was a new teacher at Flag-High last year. She moved to Flagstaff from Phoenix in August of 1983, because of job offer for her husband, , as Coach of NAU Mens Basketball. She taught, at Greenway High School in Phoenix, Shorthand, Computer and Typing. Mrs. Arnote has been teaching for 15 years. She grew up in Tempe, Arizona, and attended Tempe High School then Arizona State University. She enjoys snow-skiing and is very busy with her three and a half year old daughter.

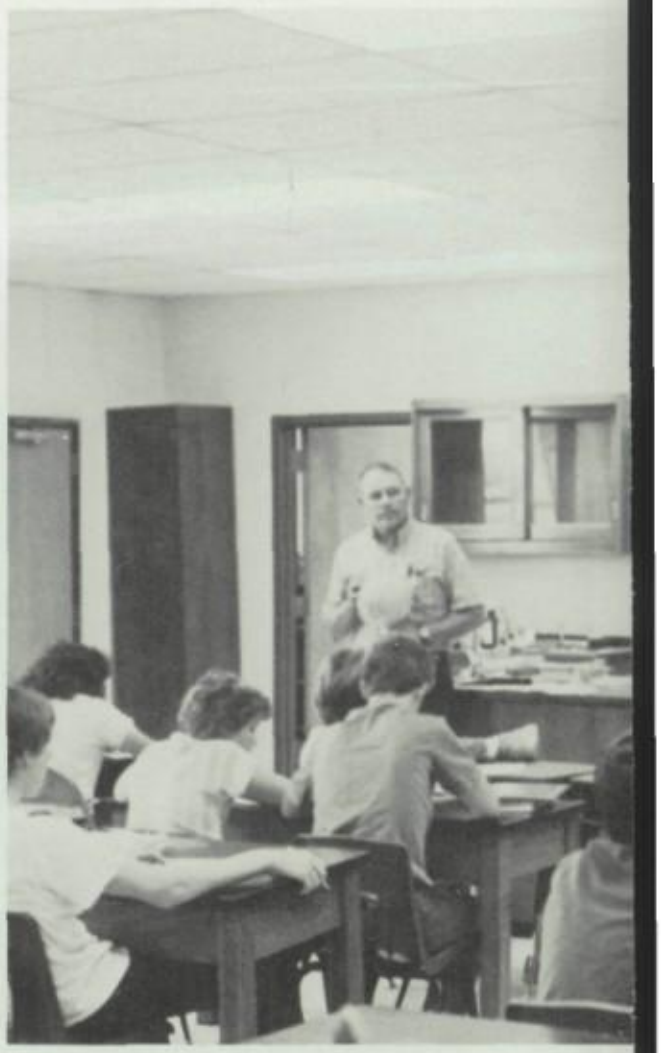
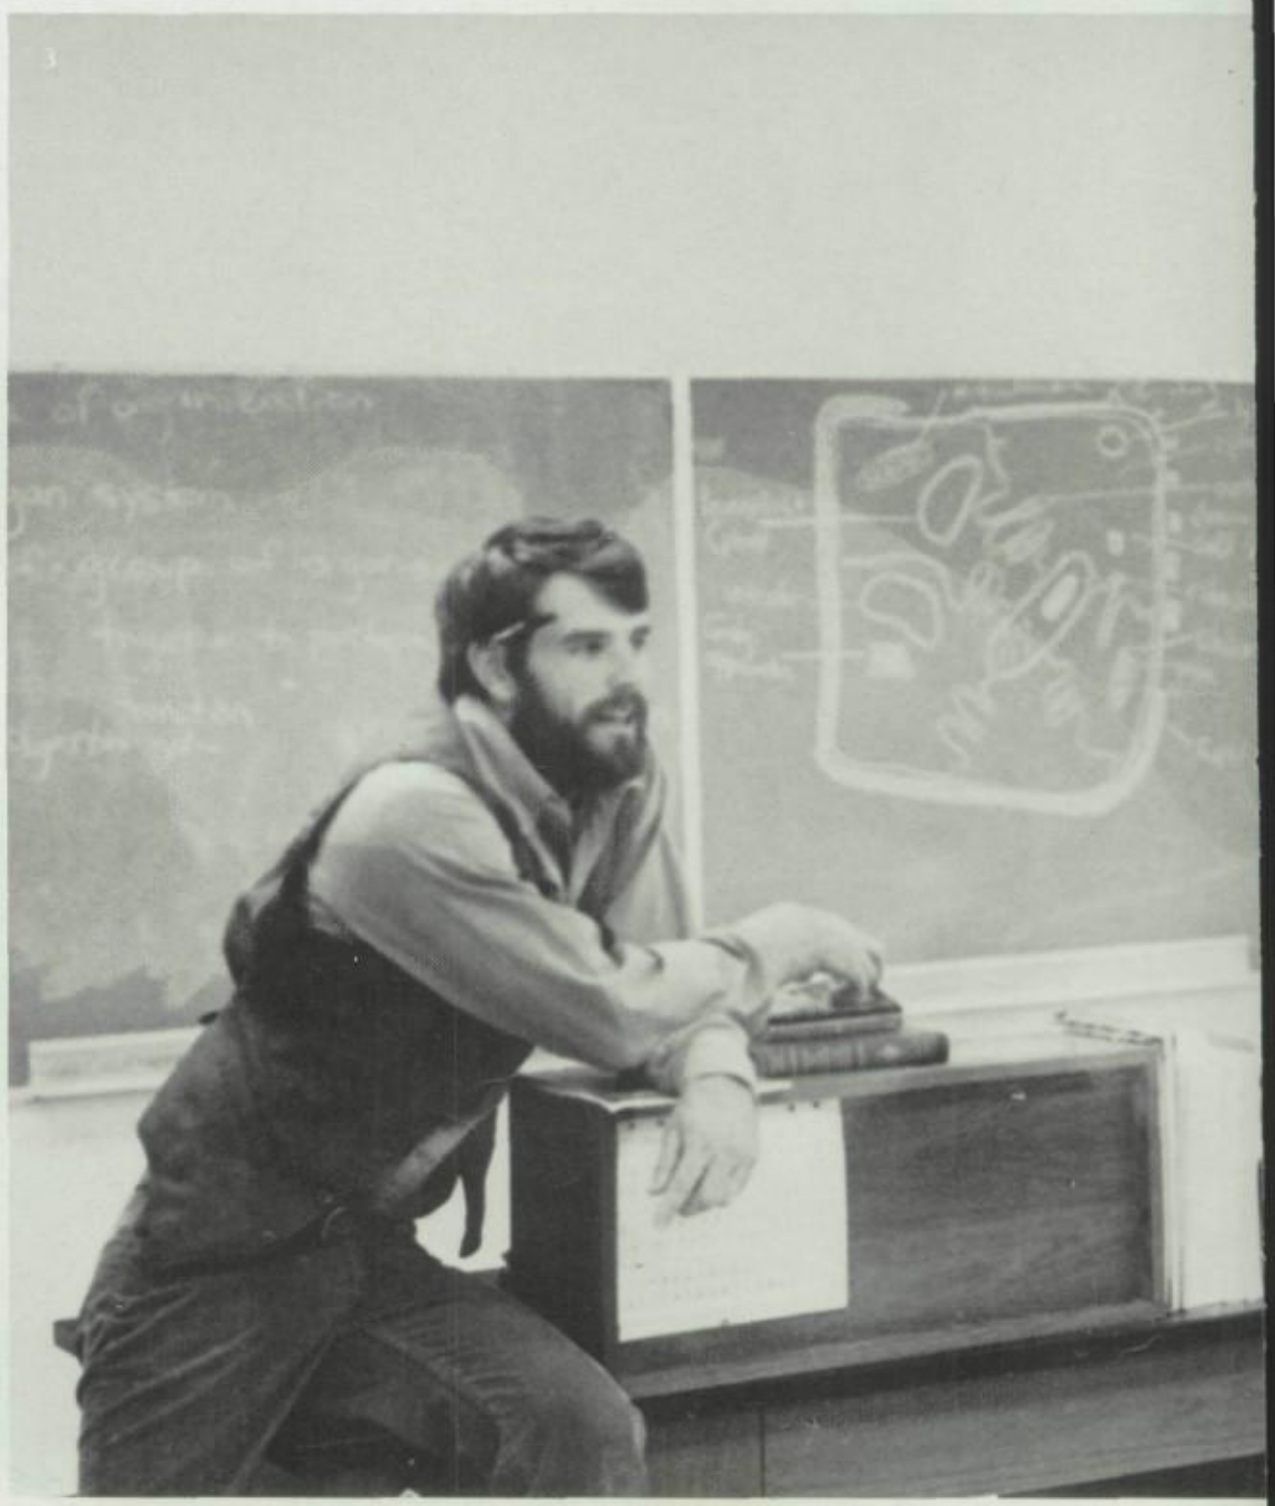
SCIENCE

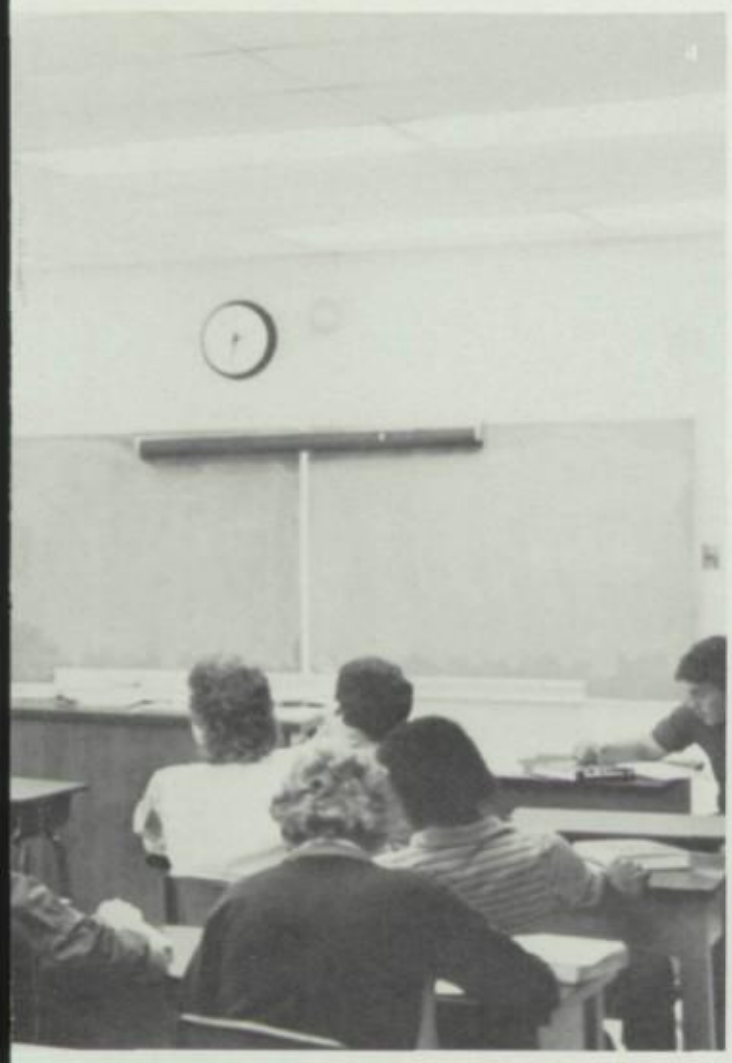
The Science Department offered students at Flag-High various courses which were enjoyable as well as informative and educational. Students learned things like dissecting animals in Biology, mixing chemicals in Chemistry, and formulas in Physics class, and learning the Earth's formation in Earth Science.

The Classes offered are: Biology I and II, Chemistry I and II, Physics, and Earth Science. The Head of the Science Department is Mr. Lauman and the other teachers are; Mr. Brown, Mr. McCormick, Mr. Stephens, and Mr. Fisk-Williams.



1. Mr. McCormick. 2. Mr. Brown. 3. Mr. Fisk-Williams. 4. Mr. Stephens and class. 5. Matt Hendricks and Jennifer Rowe. 6. Crystal Wilson and Brian Skaggs. 7. Mr. Brown and Amy Berger





Mr. Lauman is an advanced windsurfer and has been surfing for 6 years and is the best in the state. He windsurfs at Ashurst Lake, Lake Powell, Mexico in the winter, California surfing beaches, and Cholla Lake near Hollbrook in the winter because the water is heated by a power plant and stays about 75 year around. He enjoys this sport because of its speed, air time and jumps. He likes sailing in strong wind and big waves best. He has been competing for 3 years in races called Regattas and freestyle. He took 9th in the United States Boardsailing Assoc. Nationals in 1983 in the lightweight division. He also owns a sailboard business called Sails Unlimited.

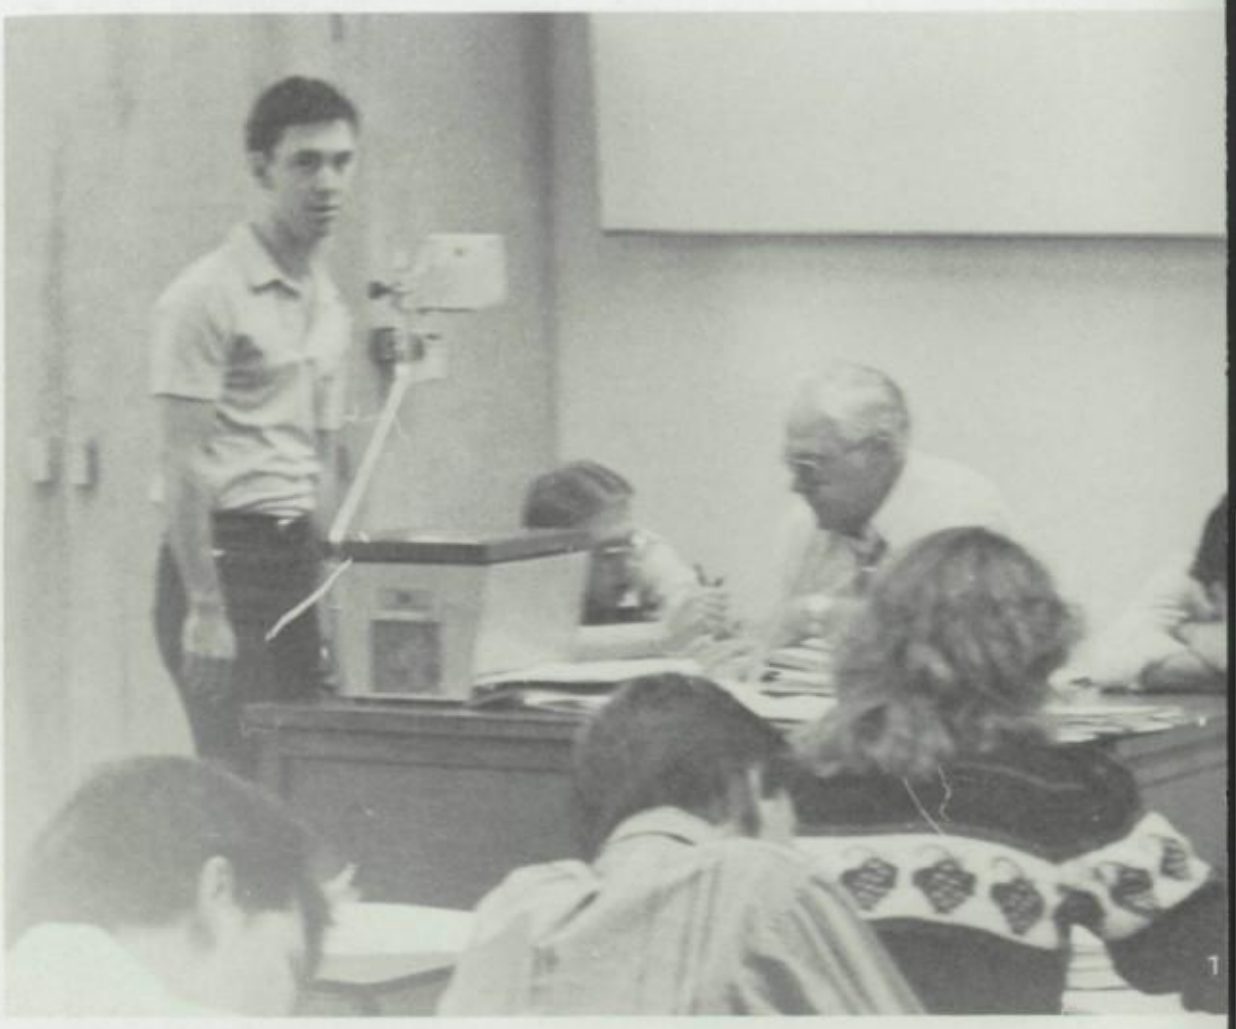
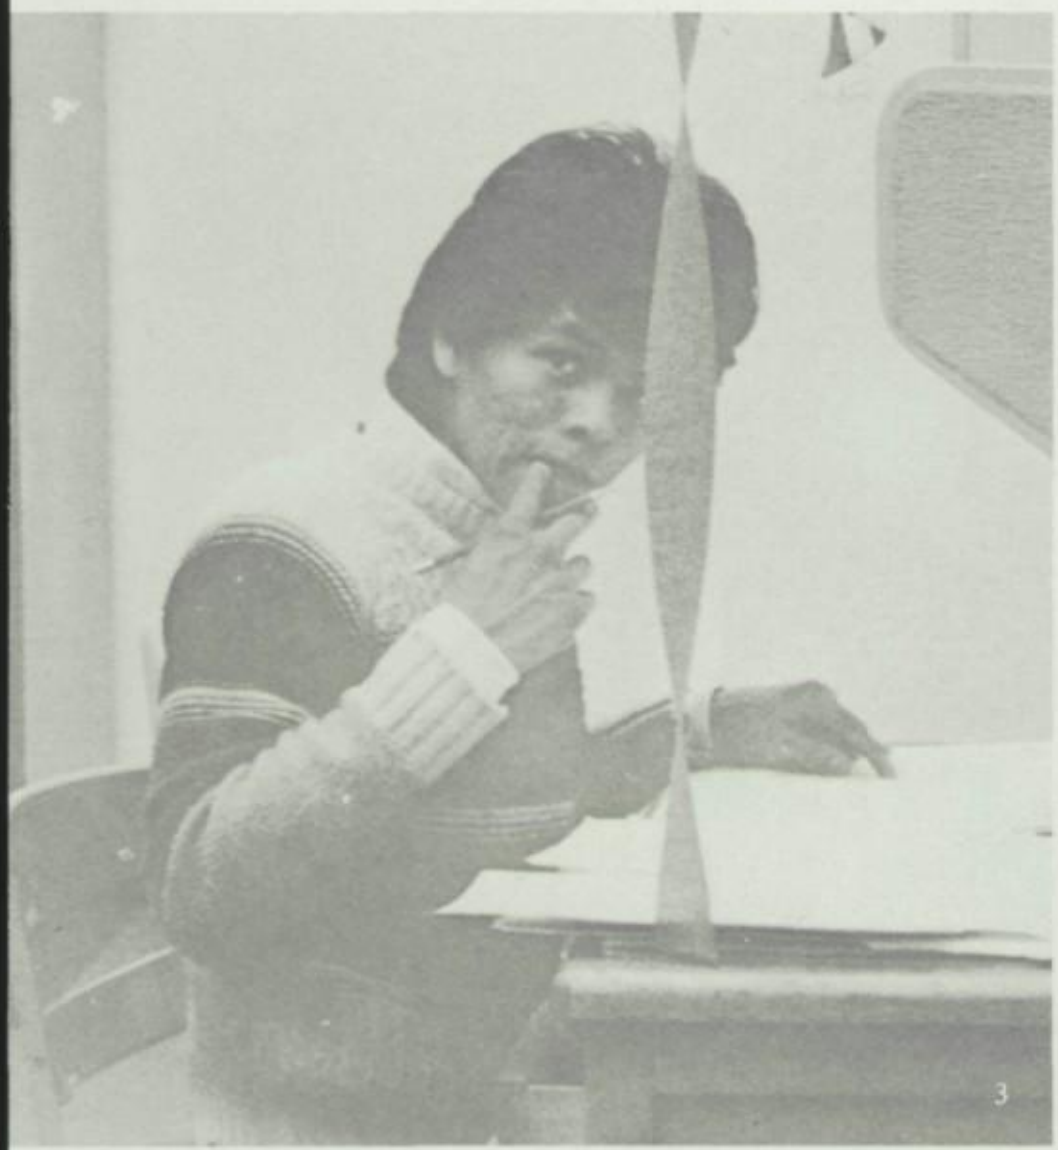
FLAGHI'S MATH

Math classes aren't what most students would call fun. They aren't easy either. But at Flaghi, a wide selection of classes and an excellent faculty take away much of the boredom and confusion. Math subjects have great importance in planning the future, with or without college. Flaghi's students are very fortunate to have a superior Math Department.



(1) Mr. Ply; (2) Mrs. Millis; (3) A. Tso; (4) Mrs. Brooks with Samson and Delilah; (5) Nicole Collins.

MRS. BROOKS



Teachers do more than check tests. Mrs. Brooks serves as a good example to this statement. Within the last two years, she has adopted an assortment of seventeen pets. Not only does she have dogs and cats, but ducks, chickens, and geese as well. Samson and Delilah, pair of geese, are among her favorites. "They're alot like dogs" she says, explaining how they protect the house from any strangers. Mrs. Brooks certainly has an interesting hobby-a good example of the quality teachers at Flaghi.

ENGLISH

Students sometime think of teachers as the strange people in front of the classroom that they are scheduled to spend one hour a day with. However most students do not realize that when the bell rings at 3:05, and they go home to enjoy other activities, the teachers leave Flagstaff High and resume their private lives also. What do teachers at Flagstaff High do in their spare time? In the English department, favorite activities range from whitewater river rafting to gourmet cooking.

Besides coaching girls' volleyball at our school, Mr. Rodrigues plays on a men's volleyball team which competes throughout the Southwest. He also runs in road races ranging from 10K to marathons. Mr. Ower is a H.A.M. radio operator, likes to work leather, and is very interested in computers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick share a love for tennis. Mr. Chadwick can also speak many languages such as French, Russian, and Turkish, which may explain why he loves to travel. Mrs. Chadwick loves to eat chocolate, go bicycling, ride horses and is a regular at Flagstaff Athletic Club. Mrs. Nations also likes to play tennis. She teaches both Spanish and English. Her Mexican and Itahlian backgrounds spark her interest in Spanish.

Mrs. Brawn, the temporary department chairperson, likes to weave and ride horses. She is also a very good cook, an interest which Mrs. Martinez also has. Mrs. Martinez enjoys gourmet cooking, skiing, and loves to play the piano.

Ms. Yescalis loves art and likes to create her own works. Batiking is one of her favorite hobbies. Mrs. Baron, a new face at Flag High, says she enjoys Flagstaff very much. She goes whitewater river rafting and does other outdoor activities such as backpacking and biking in her spare time. Mrs. Sackmann is currently working on her Ph.D. When she is not busy doing that, she enjoys running and aerobics.

Each teacher's hobbies set them apart from the other teachers and keep them from being "the stranger in front of the class".

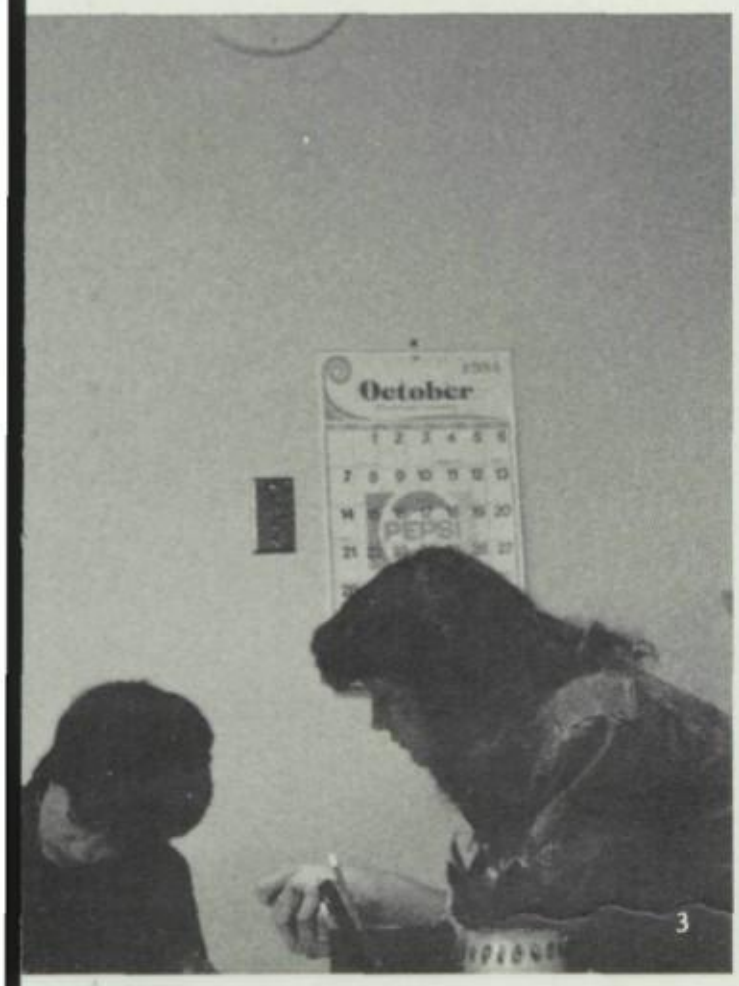
4. English Class
5. The All-Star Rebel
6. Mrs. Nations



What is the sport of Kings? Just ask Ms. Friend and I'm sure that she could tell you all about it. The "Sport of Kings" is Horse Racing.

Ms. Friend has grown up with horse racing and now is part-owner of 2 race horses. Her father was very interested in horses and she often accompanied him to the race track and spent much of her time around horses. When Ms. Friend was a senior in high school, she wrote a National Scholastic Essay about her experiences at the race track and received national recognition for it. Along with the advice of her English teacher, this award helped convince her to become an English teacher instead of pursuing a career in nursing.

"The All-Star Rebel", Ms. Friend's Quarterhorse stallion is named after his dam (mother, "Ms. Rebel Cause", and his sire (father), "All-Star". In November of 1983, "Reb" raced in Futurity Races at Turf Paradise and finished in the top 10 out of the 40 horses that competed in the races. In the summer and fall of 1984, "The All-Star Rebel raced the "fair circut", meaning he traveled to cities around Arizona and raced during fairs.

"Take No Prisioner", is the other Quarterhorse that Ms. Friend owns. This filly does not race yet because she is too young and is being prepared for her first race.

Ms. Friend enjoys horse racing very much and it is an important hobby for her. Her unique hobby sets her apart from other teachers at Flag Hi and adds special life to our school.

HISTORY

History is not exactly the most popular subject in High School, but it is important and can be quite interesting. Especially with such exceptional teachers as we have here at FHS.

Mr. Wallace and Mrs. Zimski have particularly innovative approaches to getting their students involved with their subjects. Not only do they teach what happened in history, they make you analyze why it happened and how it affects us in present day.

It is also nice to have Mr. Davis back in the classroom after his year of working in the administrative office, welcome back!

MR. JUAREZ

Mr. Juarez is a fairly new teacher here at Flagstaff High School. He's only been here for two years; he spent his other 16 years teaching at a Las Vegas school in the company of 21 other social studies teachers. Mr. Juarez says he enjoys FHS because of the fewer students. In his free time, he enjoys coaching the wrestling team, skiing and raquet ball.

FLAGHI'S SHOPS

One of the most productive sections in the school is the shops department. Many times the students need not receive anymore instruction to get a job, in which ever field he's in, after completing this High School course.

All the seperate classes, metal, electronics, mechanics and woods start out with basic skills and work up to advanced projects in higher classes.

One of the most interesting advanced projects is the houses designed, built and sold by the woods department.

Clockwise: Construction shop; Mr. Fisher; Auto Mechanics student; Motor made in Auto Shop; Mr. Lamphere.

Mr. Fisher

Mr. Fisher began teaching at Flagstaff High School in 1967 and has been an active part of our school ever since.

Although originally from Mesa, he went to NAU for his college education. He really enjoys the hunting and fishing up here, and of course construction is his main love.

MUSIC AND ART

Music and Art are two very important classes at Flagstaff High. They both dwell on self expression and seeing through your mind's eye. Creating a piece of music is parallel to creating a piece of art, for if you put your all into it you will receive as much in return. What makes these classes special are not only the students, but also the teachers who take pride in their accomplishments, and that is what Flagstaff High School is made up of.

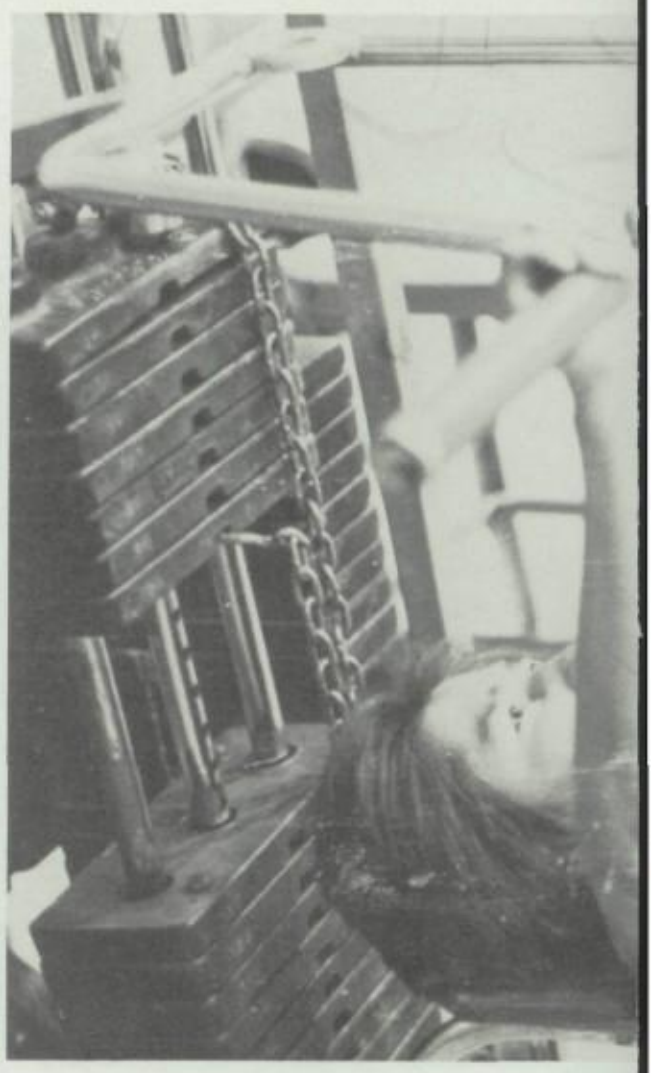
PE AND RESOURCE



P.E. classes are not all fun and games; the teachers try to let you know that the very first day. They want the best conditioning they can get for you. We as young adults, should also take pride, and care about what we are made of and not abuse our bodies, but strengthen them both physically and mentally.

Resource is a class here at Flagstaff High School. It is designed to aid in the learning of special students. The teachers in these classes are very intelligent people willing to give their time to help a very good cause.

Leo McFall is a special man working with special kids. Leo is working on his Bachelor's degree at N.A.U. He enjoys weight lifting, volleyball, and softball. He has lived 26 years in Flagstaff, and he graduated from Flagstaff High in '76. He hopes to eventually teach in Flagstaff.

HOME ECONOMICS COMPUTERS

The Homemaking Department was a helpful class for students preparing for the future. The students in the class learned how to do a number of household chores such as cooking and sewing. Also, they studied the aspects of running a home.

The Computer class' purpose was to let students broaden their horizon on the computer and learn basic programs. They learned the basic language which was used on the Radio Shack's TRS-80 and Atari computers.

If one were to attempt to segregate a single faculty member in looking for a most devoted and caring teacher, one name would invariably come to mind: Mrs. Enid Rice.

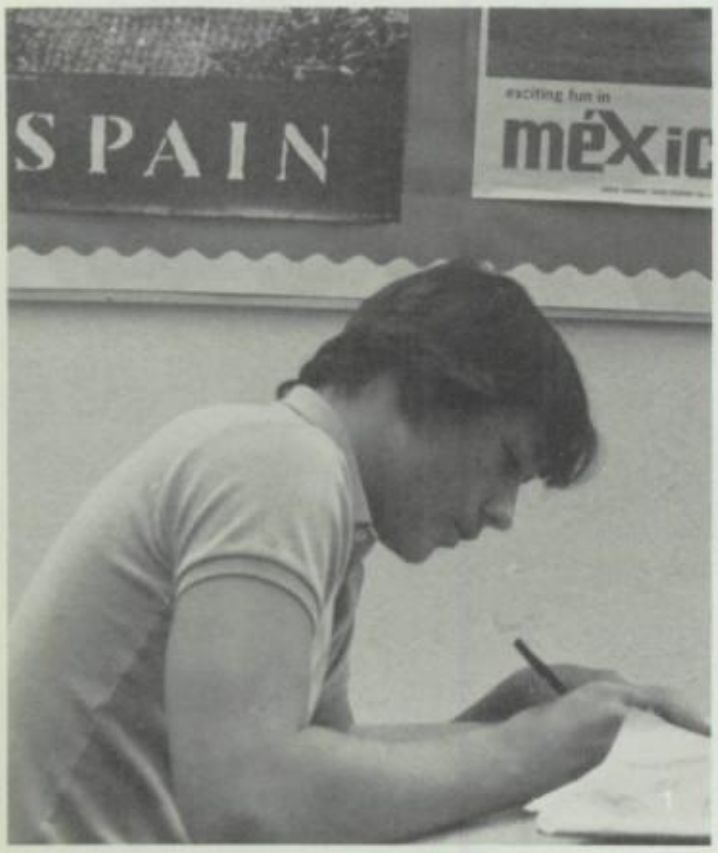
Her goal while attending college was to become a home economics teacher. She has been with us here at FHS for 20 years. We feel grateful as students to have such an open, caring teacher.

Mrs. Rice enjoys sharing with students and gains personal satisfaction from knowing she has earned trust and respect from the Student Body. Mrs. Rice also feels that it is very rewarding to see her students come back and know the knowledge has benefited their life.

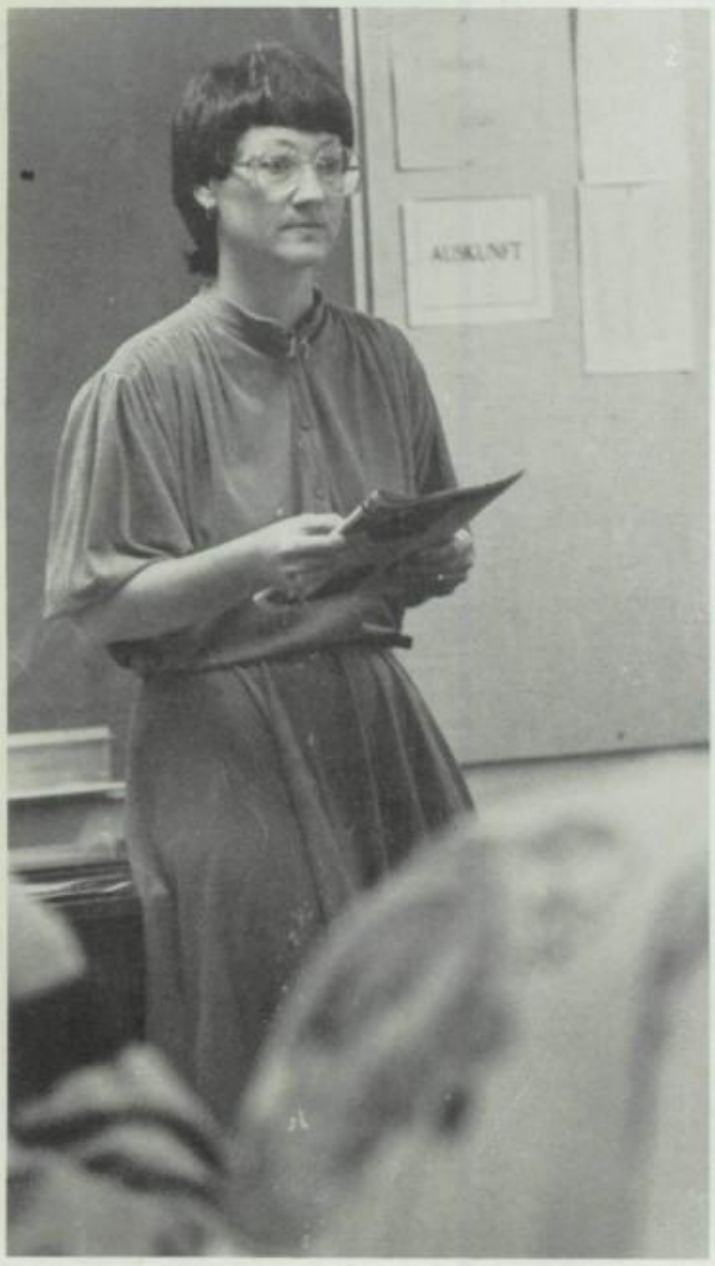
LANGUAGE

Foreign language classes are taught through methods as textbooks and films. Although teachers were used as the basic elements of teaching, there were also foreign language clubs which helped with both practice and communication with other students.

There were three language classes offered at F.H.S. German, taught by Mrs. Nesbit and Mrs. Gaylord; Spanish, taught by Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Nations; and French, taught by Mrs. Hunt.



1. Sophomore-Kevin Smith 2. Mrs. Nesbit-German 3. Scott Heideman, Mrs. Nations, Maria Pombo 4. Gracie Hernandez, Doreen Apodaca, Kevin Gould, Shari Rutter, Lisa Carlos 5. Mrs. Hunt, Jason Reeder, Shawna Morgan 6. Mrs. Hunt 7. Spanish Class 8. French Class 9. Kevin Gould 10. German Club



She lived in France for a year and has taught French for twelve years, but Judy Hunt, Flagstaff High School's French teacher says she's "All American at Heart!"

Judy Hunt has been teaching French at Flaghi for six years. She is the sponsor of the French club. The French club frequently visits other French clubs. Their French club sponsored the language fair this year.

Mrs. Hunt's favorite passtimes are playing the piano, gardening, backpacking, and making pottery. She also loves to entertain people who visit the United States from France. Mrs. Hunt also serves as an interpretor for the Hospital.

ADMINISTRATION & COUNSELORS

As you've seen throughout the year, Mr. Baker has been showing off this great school of ours to special visitors. But his main job is the Ahtletic Director's position that he holds at the present time. He accepted the job this past summer, knowing he was going to give up the job as the Varsity Basketball coach.

He has been the only basketball coach in Flagstaff High School's history to win a State Championship, back in 1975. He came real close last year, but was defeated in the Semi-finals by one point.

Mr. Baker has been responsible for arranging great games. For example: The Marana and Gilbert showdowns in football. In other words he has arranged games against teams we normally don't play during the regular season. He also changed the State Championship game from Friday to Wednesday so everybody would enjoy a long four-day Thanksgiving vacation.

Being that you were a great History teacher and basketball coach, we wish you the best of luck in the future.

To many football is no more than a sport, to we, the players, its a passion. This season was a step in a tradition of victory. A tradition of champions! Flag Hi Football has taught us more than we will ever forget. Our season was one of both victory and defeat, this football team prevailed in both cases. We were closer to each other than we were to our families. This came through our hard work and determination. From our study hall to our many meetings we earned the right to be called State Champions. It was a dream come true, the time to realize we are the EAGLES forever! We will never forget our football family or our pride for Flagstaff High.

This Football season was one of championship moments, yet it wasn't all smooth sailing. From the start of spring training to the championship game it was constant hard work. Through our hard work and dedication we met all our goals. Although we worked hard we had great times together, most of all at Camp Colton. Here we became a family, and grew very close to one another. This close family atmosphere helped pull us through our disappointments and made our achievements all the greater. Our season climaxed with our victory over Peoria, it was the greatest moment ever!

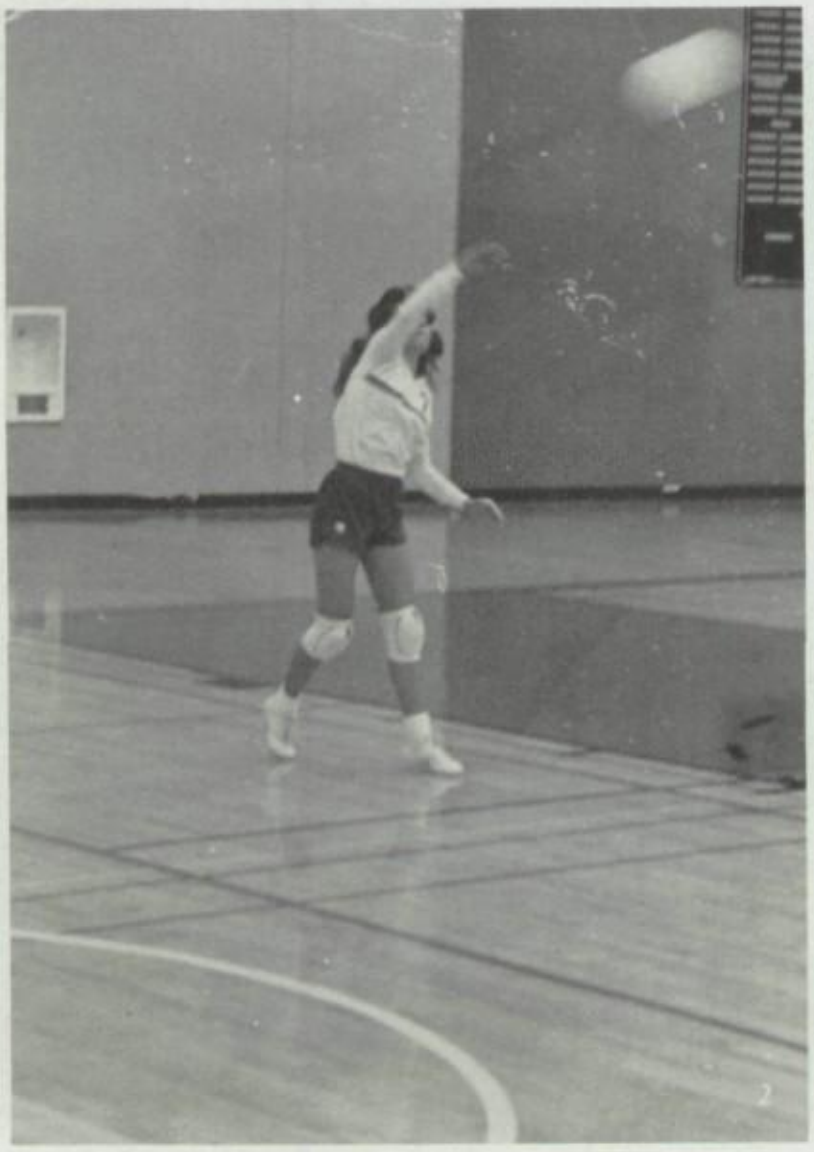
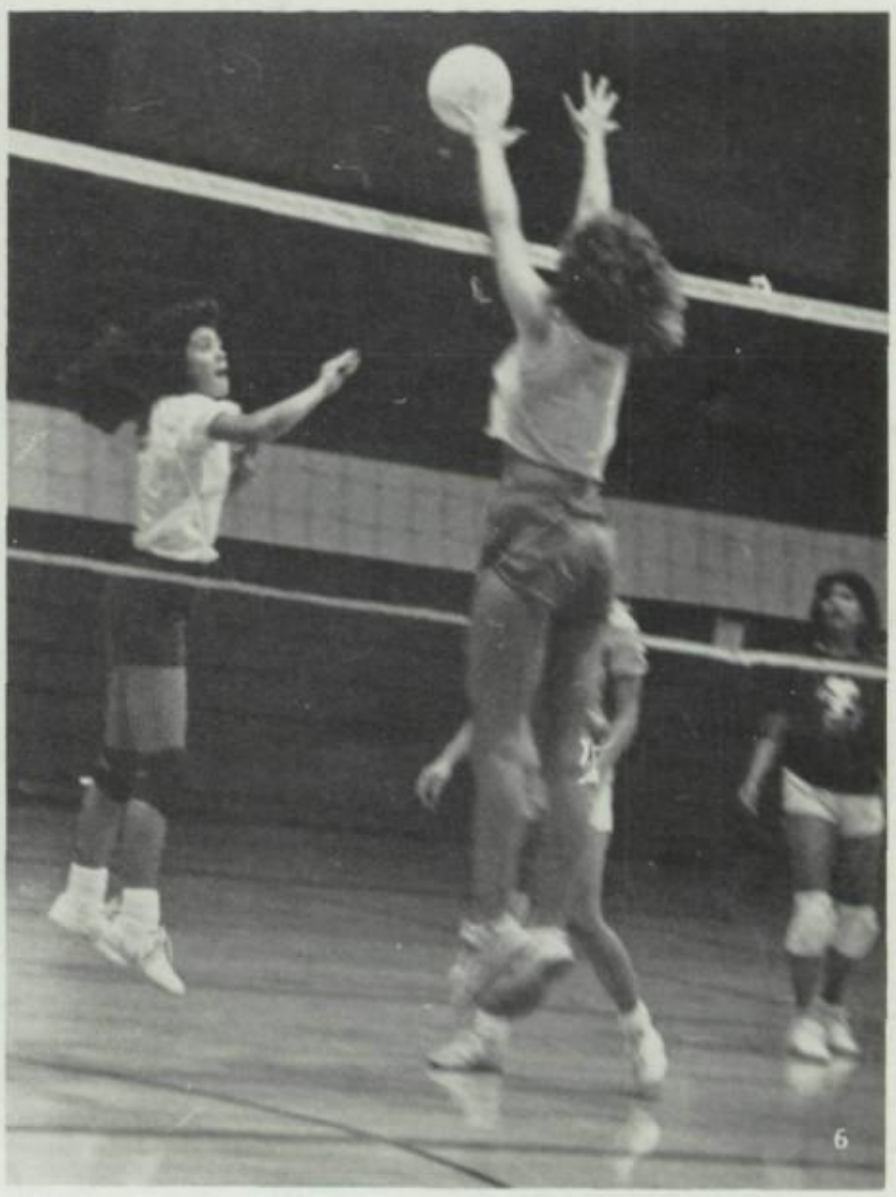
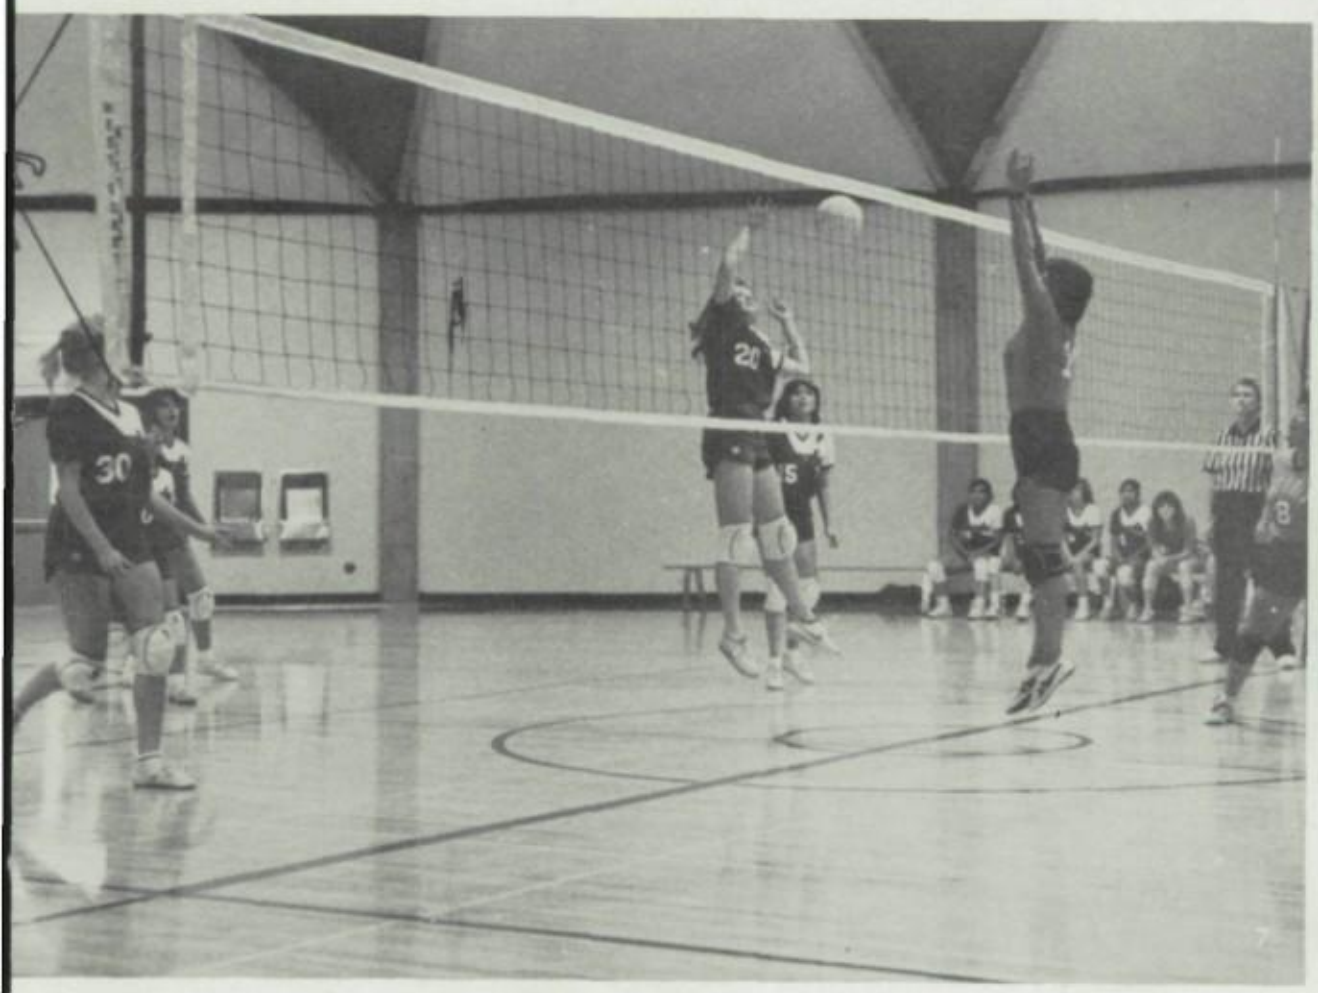
VARSITY VOLLEYBALL







This 1984 varsity volleyball team turned out to be a great success. This year the Lady Spikers started off their season by losing to Coconino, but we got our act together and took 3rd in divisionals and were the runners up in the AA North Division. We also went to the state play-offs for the first time in 10 years. Our team played our first and best game against Mingus and all the games after that went great. We had great confidence.

We started a great year with our new coach, Vicki Rawlinson. Rawlinson wanted a team that would communicate as well as play well together. It took a lot of time and dedication on our part and on our coaches', Rawlinson and Rodigues.

At Divisionals we were really psyched and wanted to prove we could do something. Three intense seniors received awards for their outstanding achievements. Cindy Temoke received 1st All-Tourney, Marietta Rodriquez received 2nd All-Tourney and Dena McKenzie received an Honorable Mention. Our senior players are: Tahnee Robertson, Theresa Sandoval, Miranna James and Janelle Ivie. Our Juniors on our team were Angel Rodriquez, Ivanna Jones, and Carrie Besnette.

The Lady Eagles had a great year and are planning to have another one.

Wow! What a fun season this has been. We really had a great year. Remember all the fun times: pizza, sweatshirt screening and our famous dives. Especially, Ooga, Ooga, Dive! Dive! Looks like towards the end of the season, we really got our "heads" together. Thanks to all the J. V. ers like "Roof Monster", "Cubbie" and well, just everybody! Thanks goes especially to the best coach ever, "Rod!" Hey, why don't you eat at home sometime?! See ya again next year . . .

Boy I sure could play defense couldn't I. I sure am glad you made the switch over to head varsity this year your probably the best coach I have had so far sure I'll see you this summer will have to have another cook out. You'll have to help me on my kicking this summer. Good luck in the future tho the team. Remember to invite me when your playing in the state game.

This year's Varsity Basketball team, which consisted mainly of juniors and seniors, gave a good example of the teamwork that is necessary for a successful season. A patient pass oriented offense strategy proved helpful for the Eagles. Under the direction of Coach Buzz Weidinger the team had a very successful season.

J.V. BASKETBALL

This year the Junior Varsity Basketball team had a challenging but successful season. The team put in long, hard hours, but in the end it paid off.

Lead by Coach Lawrence, the team was taught how to play together and learned what team work and sportsmanship are all about.

This year's team had what it takes to have fun and learn, too.

This was the year for the bigger and better Eagle Cross Country team. Inspired by Assistant Coach Daniels, some of the wrestlers went out to get in shape for the wrestling season. The rest of the team joined basically for the love of the sport.

This year's team finished second at divisionals to advance to the State Championships at Thunderbird High School. Linda Austin was one of the top finishers, as she placed fourteenth out of the one hundred racers that were there.

The girls finished 4th out of the 11 teams that participated, and the boys finished 5th out of 12.

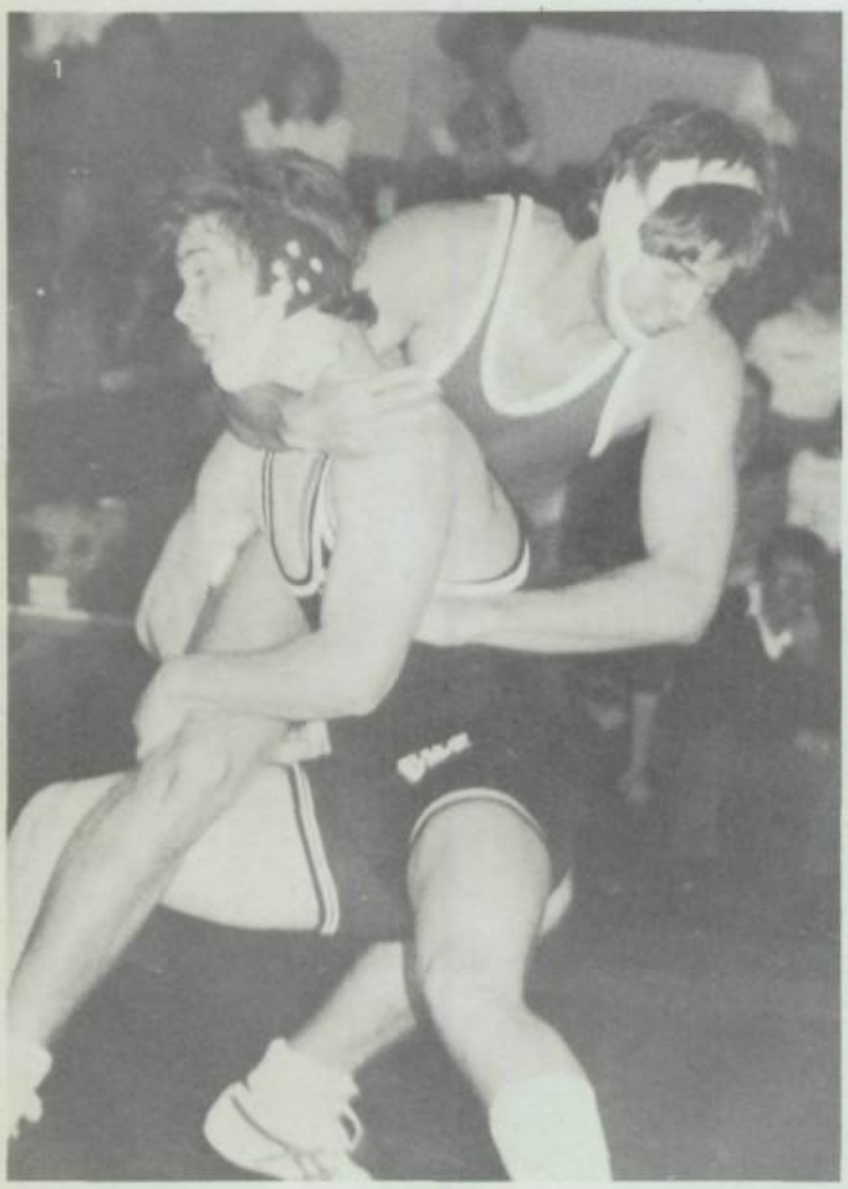
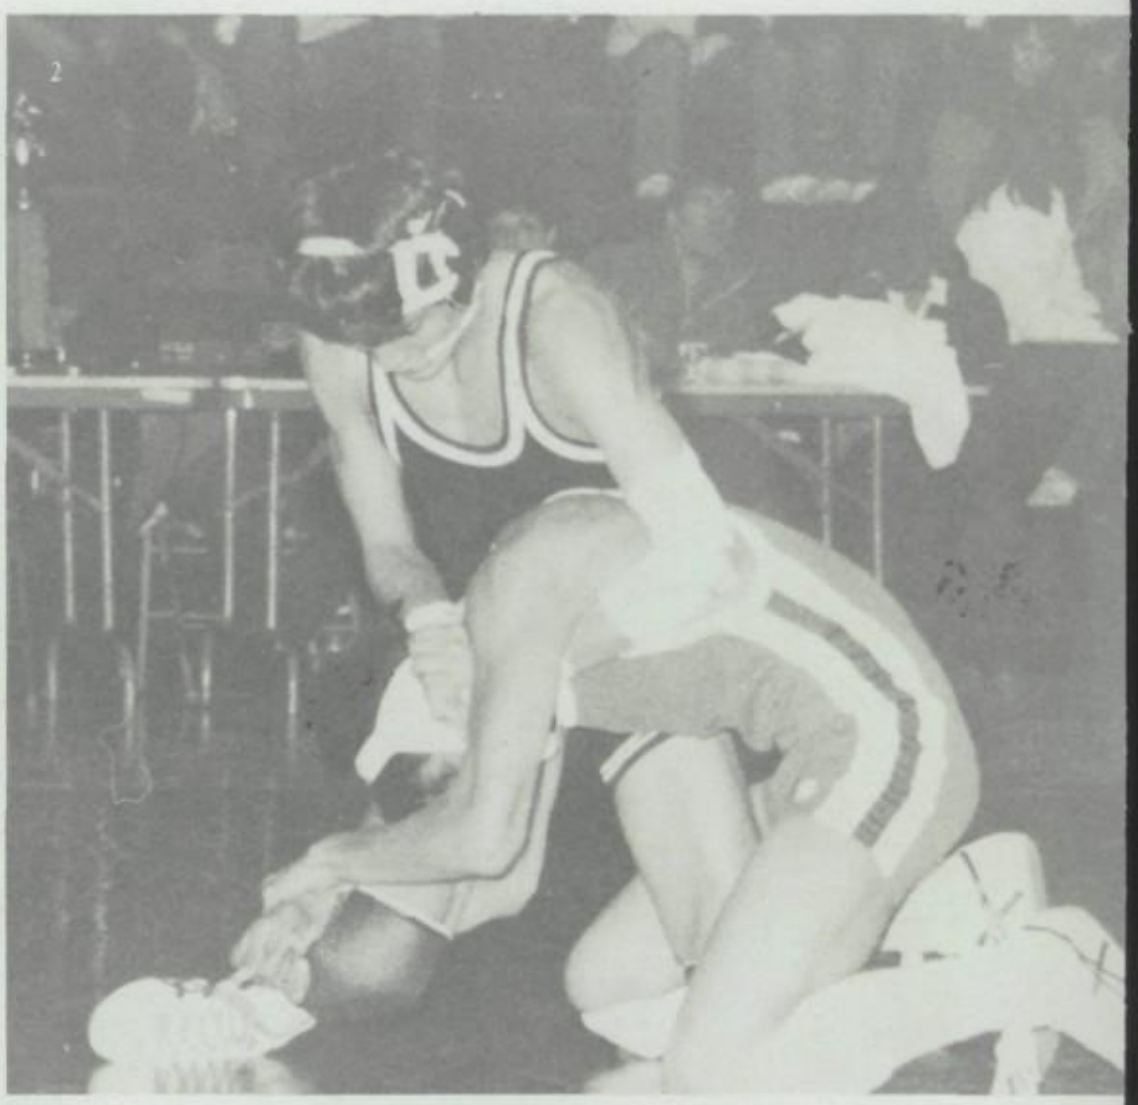
What a great year! and what a great group of fine young men to work with. Never before have I seen a team, in any sport, improve and come together as this year's Eagle Wrestlers. We set out goals early in the season, and every wrestler worked to accomplish them. Our two main goals were to win the city championship, and to win the division title. Often our goals seemed to be unattainable with teams such as Coconino and Tuba City in front by 40 or 50 points. Through hard work and a sincere desire to succeed, week by week, the point spread decreased until by the Winslow Tournament we were on top. In our Big Duel with Coconino, we proved ourselves with a 39-25 victory. The following week we came within an inch of our second goal. Although we were runner up to Tuba City, we didn't lose. How can you lose when the characteristics developed during the season are the same ones we value most in life?

Competitiveness, discipline, hard work, leadership, the ability to compete within a set of rules, and most importantly, care and help for one another. It was a wonderful year, one which will give me wonderful memories for years and years to come. Thanks Guys!

Coach Daniels





Wrestling meant so much to me this year. Making the Varsity squad as a sophomore was great, but along with it came a lot of hard work and sacrifice. Everyday for four months our team practiced after school. Though our practices were very difficult, we grew together through our beatings, blood and sweat, we became as close as brothers. Coach Daniels provided plenty of wrestling as well as a tough 15 minute warmdown.

When wrestling we had to make many sacrifices, amoung the hardest was dieting. For every meet I had to sacrafice my meals and cut weight by running it off. Controling our weight was a big set back, for often we couldn't eat for days. In the end it was worth it. I set a goal to be division champion. For my hard work I earned the title. Wrestling is dedication determination, and desire. The thrill of competition and the call to glory kept us going all season long. That's Wrestling!

EAGLES MAKE HISTORY: 4TH CHAMPIONSHIP

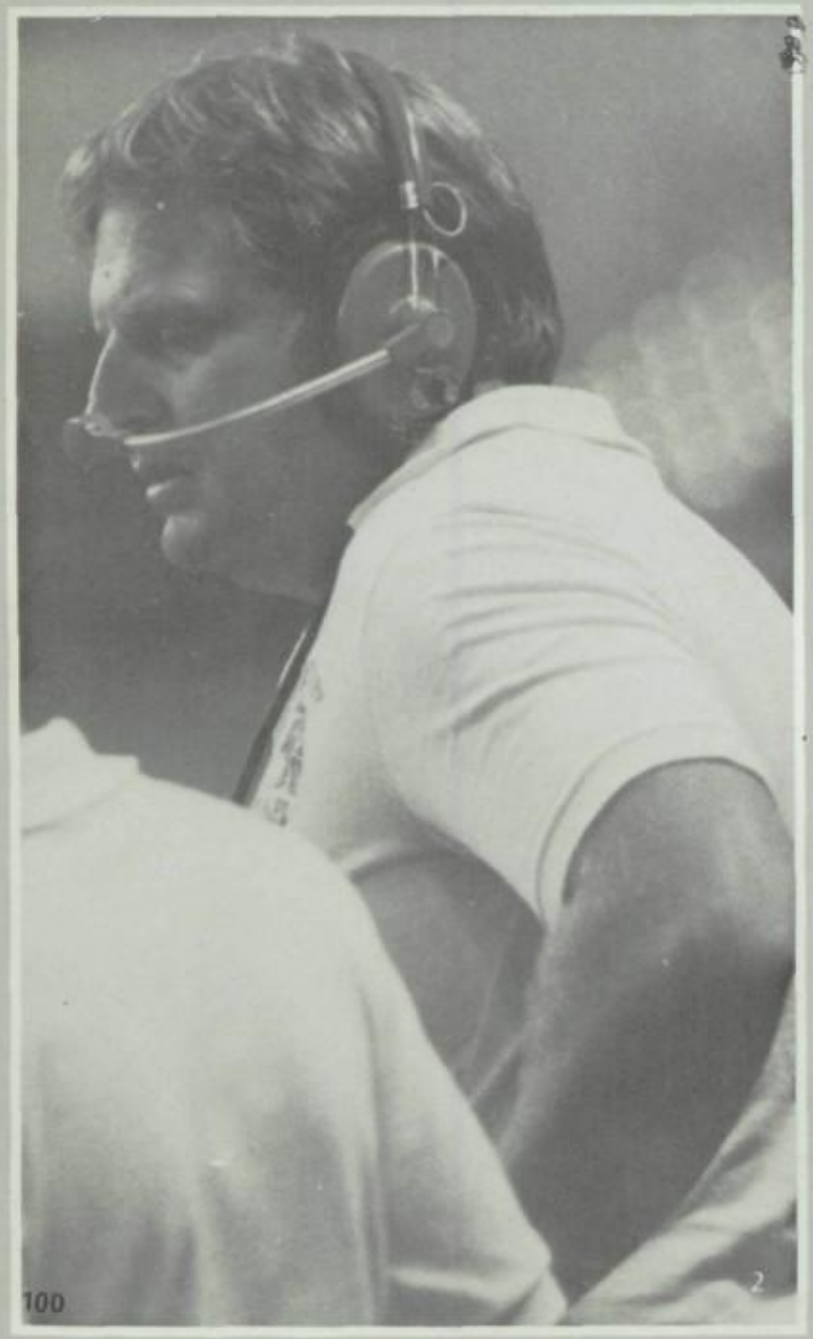
With the ending of our season came the ending of Mr. Smith's time at Flag High. There is no way to repay him for what he has done for his players and his school, so all we can say is thank you and Good Luck as you pursue your goals. You will not be forgotten.

Playing football for the Flagstaff Eagles was the greatest learning experience we had ever had. We learned to push ourselves past what we thought we could ever do. We found out how to win and lose with class, and how to play football from masters of the game. But most of all, through all the hard work, long hours, and pain, we learned what it takes for one to be able to say "I am a champion!"

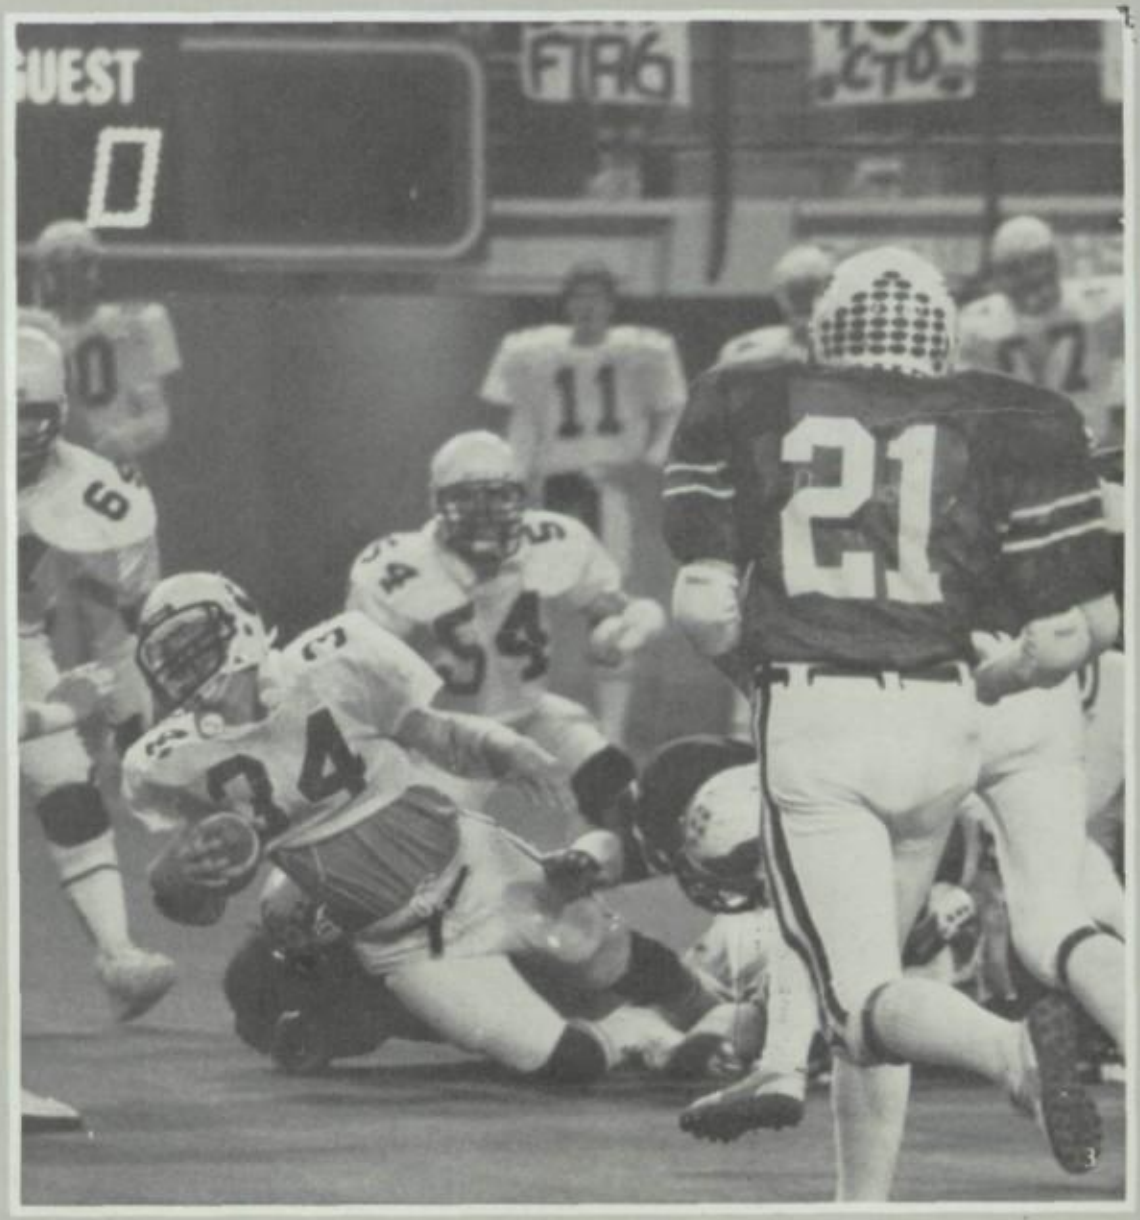
Words cannot describe all the good times and bad times we shared this season. We worked harder than we ever imagined we could; and learned that hard work makes wins, and wins make champions.

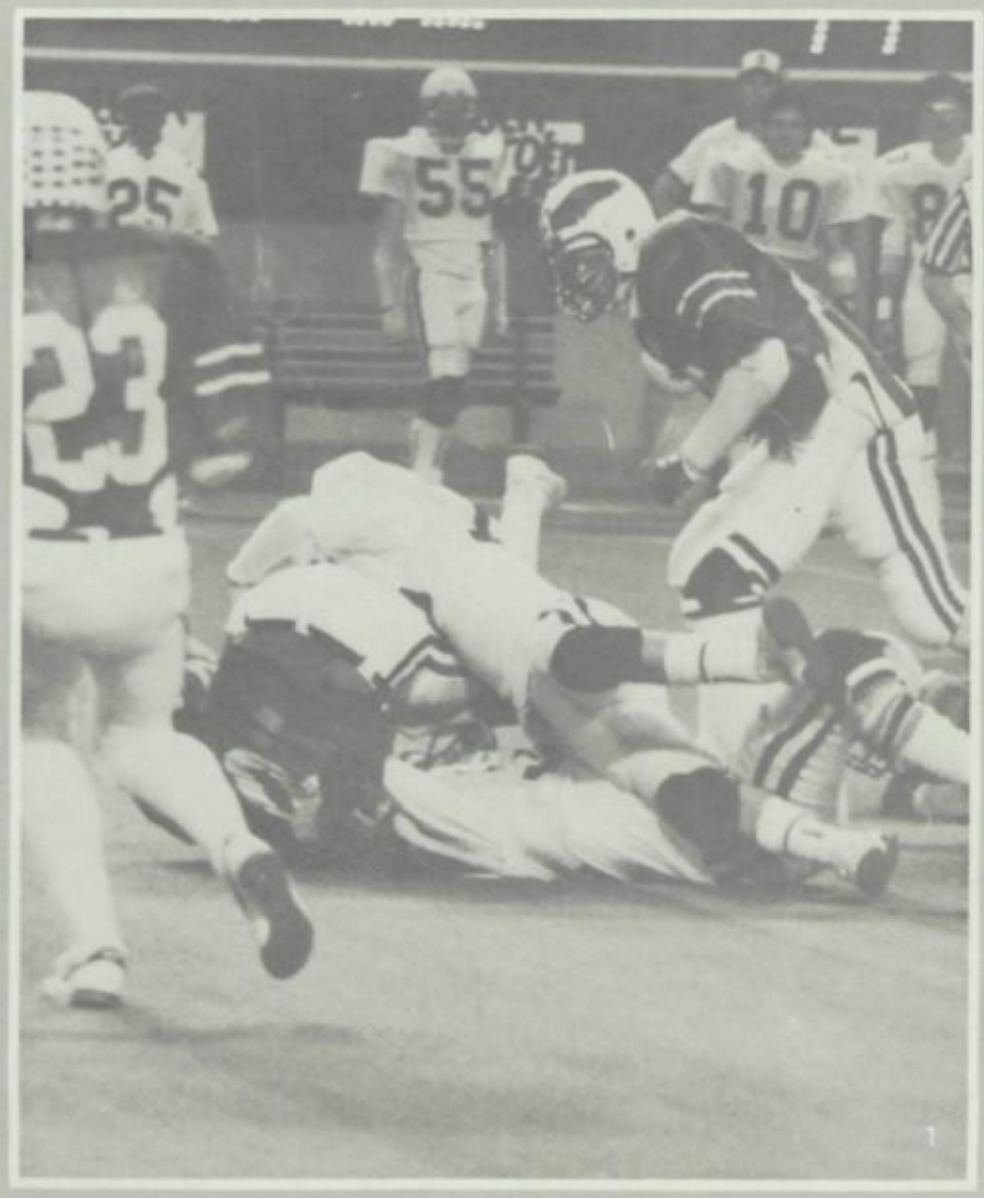
And after we left the field of Glendale High for the last time and entered its locker room, we learned we had made the best 35 friends we have ever had!! no. 52 and 74

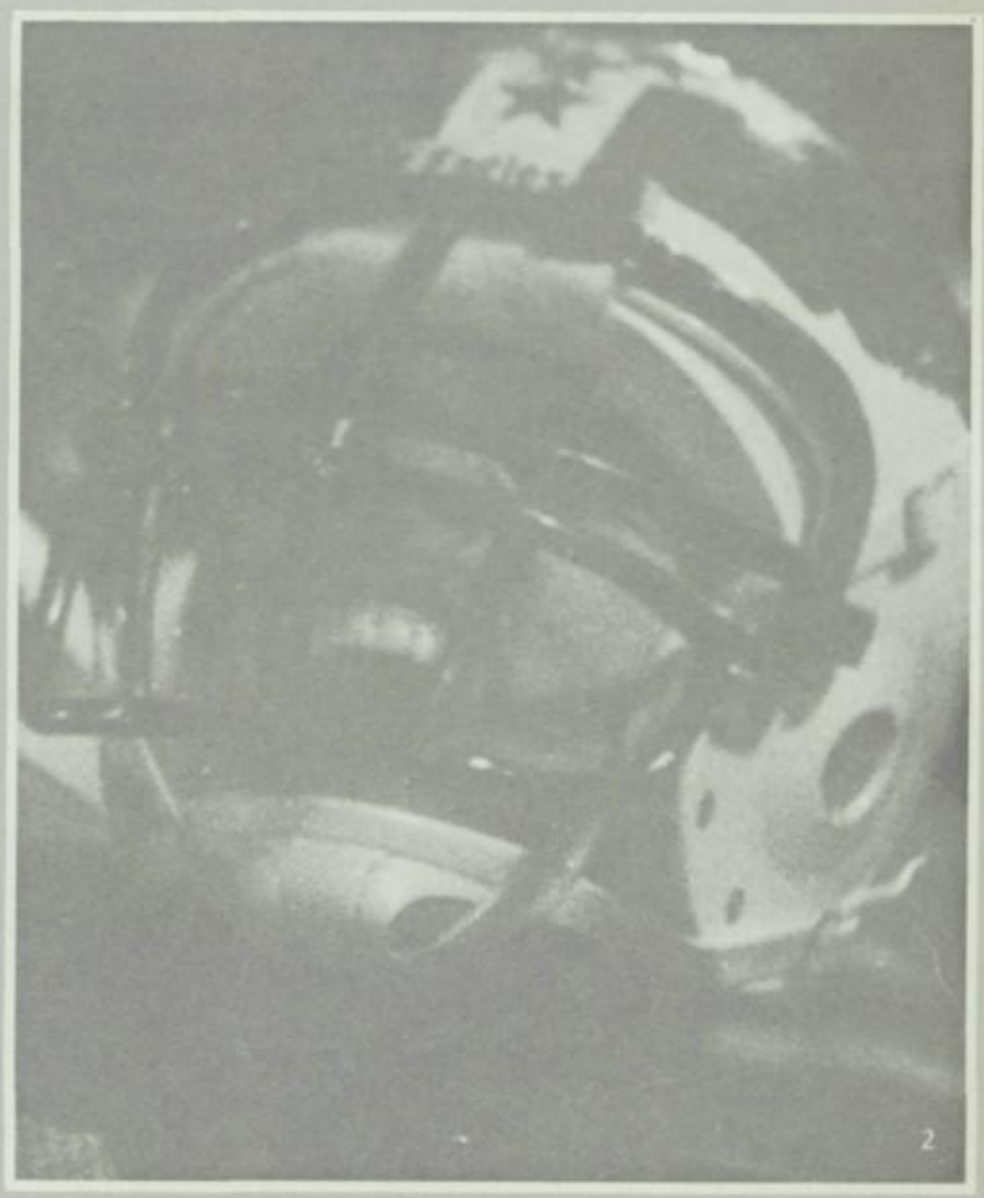
For the last three years the Kinlani has contributed a page for the Eagle football players because they won the Arizona State AA Football Championship. Now at the beginning of each year we just plan it in just like any other section of the yearbook. It isn't any less important having won four years in a row, because Flagstaff has just accepted the fact that Flagstaff High School is made up of Champions!!!



1. Eagle's defense. 2. Coach Smith. 3. Gilbert bites the turf.







1. Walter Miller and Rob Greve. 2. A Champion. 3. David Winsley. 4. Dr. Swetnam.

HOMECOMING 1984-1985

This year's Homecoming brought out a special spirit at Flag High. Both students and Faculty found it hard to concentrate on their classes. All minds seemed to focus on school spirit and on the awaited football game.

Monday started off sales of sophomore slave licenses, where seniors bought sophomores for a dollar. Tuesday students "dressed to kill" in their best threads. Wednesday brought out the shades (sunglasses) and wild Hawaiian shirts. Thursday the student body was hard to see because it was camouflage day. Thursday night the halls were decorated in a fashion that has never been seen before. The people who worked on them poured their spirit into making their hall its best. Friday Sophomore Hunting Season began, some seniors got their sophomore slaves at an early hour. The sophomores were looking pretty rough after the seniors got through with them, everyone seemed to have fun that day.

The pep assembly seemed to be the highlight of the week. Everyone's spirit was at its highest. Seniors won both the yelling contest and the hall decorating contest.

The perfect ending for Homecoming week was the Victory score-35-6!

1. Sophomore slaves. 2. David Winsley. 3. Kevin Gould and Crystal Johns. 4. Rob Greve and Dena McKenzie. 5. Marnie Madden and her slaves. 5. another slave.

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

Kevin Gould and Crystal Johns

Rob Greve and Dena McKenzie

David Winsley and Maria Orders

A big part of every Homecoming is the Royalty. This year's student body nominated six girls and six guys from each class in the first elections. Then in the second elections two sophomores, two junior, two senior, and two faculty nominees were elected attendants and King and Queen. The Faculty and the underclass attendants were announced at the pep-assembly and the senior attendants and King and Queen were declared during half-time at the Homecoming game.

CLASS OF EIGHTY-FIVE

Our Friendships will never be forgotten
Remembering the good times we had so often
All the times we laughed and cried together
These memories will stick with us forever

Our goals and ideals should be pushed all the way
For these dreams will become reality one special day
Act as an Eagle and spread your wings
Take the opportunities that life may bring

The years have slipped away so fast
The friendships we have built will always last
The time has come for us to leave Flag Hi
Our memories of this place will never die

Some of you may remember Anji Booty from ninth grade. She is now the president of a fanzine called Duranies Unite. She also publishes and eight page fanzine called "Duranies Unite" monthly which is circulated to over 200 people, which she hopes to eventually make into a magazine. Anji wanted to make her news letter widley known so she put an ad in a magazine, and is still receiving letters six months later. She has members in all 50 states, and also in Canada and Australia. Nick Rhodes wrote Anji a personal message wishing her luck in her newsletter. Anji is also currently making questions for the Trivial Pursuit game, about Duran Duran. Anji has been a creative addition to our yearbook staff.

Fon Hartman is a junior here at Flagstaff High School. She is just 15 years old, but she is already a senior in 4-H. She trains, rides and shows horses. Fon has already won many ribbons and various trophys for showing her horses. Fon was rewarded this year for all of her hours on the horses, she qualified for the state show, in the Arizona State Fair. Fon met many new people from all over Arizona, and was surprised at how many there were. Fon enthusiastically added "It was a very special experience. I came out of every class very self rewarded. My horse did well and I did well Too." She received the following awards; In English she placed 8 out of 32 other horses, in Hunt Seat Equatation (which is judged on the performance of the rider). She also placed in the Western division. Fon placed number 5 out of 32 other horses in showmanship. Fon quoted "It was worth all of the work and long hours that it took to prepare for the State Fair horse show."

CHRIS FAURE

There are obviously many outstanding students at Flagstaff High School this year, and Chris Faure is easily classified with them. Chris has built an honorable reputation while participating with the Snow Sharks, a private swimming team.

He began swimming when he was five years old for leisure, but began competitive swimming 5 years later. Although he has many trophies and medals, his most recent accomplishment was his attendance at the Junior Nationals Swimming tournament. He has many goals planned, including attendance at the Senior National Swimming Tournament next year, and possibly acception into the Olympic Training Team with the 1988 Olympics.

The Kilani Staff would like to wish Chris the very best of luck with his future goals.

Ivanna Jones

There are many multi-talented athletes at Flagstaff High School this year. One of them is Ivanna Jones.

Ivanna has attended Flagstaff schools for three years. She has participated in every sport offered. Her favorite sport is basketball in which she prefers playing center or wing. Excitement and fun are what she looks for in a sport and that is what she finds in basketball.

In track she was a discus thrower and also threw shot put. She received fourth place in State for the shot put. She also attended the State volleyball tournament this year and was both a setter and spiker.

Ivanna says that there is more competition at Flaghi and wishes to receive a scholarship to USC or ASU.

Robbie Muns started Bowling 7 years ago. Both of his parents bowl and they got him started in the sport.

In that time, Robbie has won over 50 trophies, over 10 of them have come from different states all over the U.S. He has a 190 average. Looking at his practice schedule, it is easy to see why he has done so well. Robbie diciplines himself to practice at least 3 times a week.

When Robbie was asked how long he plans to continue to bowl, he replied, "For a long, long time." We wish Robbie the best of luck with his bowling.

Most days at lunch you can't see Chris Scott in the lunchroom. One place that he may be is in the library playing Dungeons and Dragons. Dungeons and Dragons, or D and D, is a game that, "deals mainly with the mind," and, "lets the imagination run wild."

Chris started that Dungeons and Dragons only requires basic math skills but is still not very popular and, "only a handful of people at Flagstaff High play."

Chris started playing D and D in about the eighth grade with a friend in New Mexico. The game was created by a man named Gary Gyrax and is not hard to play but there are just so many things to learn when one is first trying the game. So, if you would like a new interesting hobby you might try Dungeons and Dragons with Chris!

You may have noticed Mark Beasley, a Flag High sophomore, missing lately. He left Octover 26, to go to Vail, Colorado, where he was invited to live with some friends and ski on the Vail Ski Team.

Mark has been skiing for seven years and was on the Flagstaff Ski Team for four years. He tried downhill racing, liked it and decided to stick with it.

Before leaving, Mark was training by running, riding bikes, and weight lifting. In Vail, he kept the hectic schedule of school, skiing four hours four days a week and seven hours on the weekend.

Mark plans on continuing his skiing and would one day like to be on the U.S. Ski Team. Even though it's discouraging sometimes and, "It gets really cold out there," Mark said, "It's fun, and I think it's worth it."

Kim Carlin has the potential many other young runners don't have, and that is to complete a Triathlon race and come in second place in her age group of (10-19) in girls out of three hundred people. The triathlon consisted of a three mile, run, .3 mile swim, and a 12.4 mile bike ride. The triathlon took place at Thunderbird Park in Phoenix, Arizona.

"The triathlon was great", Kim said enthusiastically.

Kim is on the Flagstaff Snow-Sharks swimteam, and attends many meets. She also loves riding her bike around town. Also she participates in Cross Country and hopes to join next year.

She has won many ribbons in swimming and really enjoys swimming at Lake Powell. In the Snowsharks she swims about 150 laps, plus she rides her bike to school and back, also to practices which equal up to about four miles or more per day.

When Danielle Kemper was in grade school, she heard about a program with "Guide Dogs for the Blind Inc." to train puppies for the California school. Because of her love for dogs and her wishes to earn a scholarship, she decided to apply for the one and a half year job. To be accepted, she had to have a suitable background, past experience with pets, proper housing facilities, a good family, etc. This is because it is just like getting your own pet, except that you have to give it up, which Danielle says is the hardest part.

The initial training that Danielle provides is obedience and socialization to traffic and loud noises. When this phase is over, the dog is sent back to California for four months of testing and six months of formal training on a harness.

Alfie, her current puppy, is a German Shepherd. He and his brothers all have names beginning with the letter "A", because the litters are named alphabetically. Danielle has trained three puppies, which means she has spent four and a half years with this program; what dedication!

WAYNE HAUGHEY is not just an ordinary sophomore. During the months of October, November and December Wayne has been attending a class at the Flagstaff Municipal Airport every Monday for three hours. Wayne is preparing to get his student pilot's license when he is 16 and his private pilot's license at 17. He would like to be a commercial pilot when he is older.

Ground School is not required, but is very highly recommended. To pass ground school, Wayne must receive a grade of 70% or better in the class before he can even take the final written test. On this test he must receive a score of at least 80%. The test asks questions about the weather, the airplane and many other things about flying.

After he has passed ground school he then will fly a total of 40 hours. These hours are divided into 20 hours of flying with the instructor and 20 hours of flying solo. After Wayne receives his license he plans on using his parents' plane to fly.

Ray Ramirez is making a name for himself at Flaghi. He is a perfect example of what the Flagstaff High School varsity football team is made of. His youth represents hope for future Flagstaff teams.

The 5' 7", 115 pound, 17 year old wide receiver was born here in Flagstaff and has been here all his life. Ray has been playing football for five years. He began playing football in fifth grade, at Killip Elementary School, and continued on to play tackle in junior high.

He is only a sophomore and is already on the varsity football team. He is the first sophomore to play first-string in years. He is extremely quick on his feet and very coordinated with his hands. He makes even the hardest plays look simple.

Ray has been a tremendous addition to our team here at Flaghi this year. We know he will continue to be an asset to our team in the continuing two years of his high school career.

Shannon, A sophomore at Flag High may be quiet at school but once out she's off to the races. Shannon rides show horses, a hobby she was introduced to by her grandmother riding mostly in Phoenix she competes on her horse "Star". Showhorse riding demands long hours of practice. Much like any other sport it takes hard work and concentration. "The most difficult training is working as a unit with the horse", Shannon says, as most horseshows rate really highly on rider-horse sequence. Shannon plans to further her riding and competition both in and out of state. To place in major meets and mostly to get right back on when she is THROWN!

BEST WISHES TO THE CLASS OF 1985

A Flagstaff citizen for more than a half-century

Our roots grow deep in Arizona. Especially in Flagstaff, where we have been a corporate citizen since 1924. During 1984, in excess of $5 million in payrolls will go to more than 500 people directly dependent on our Flagstaff sawmill and logging operations. We're committed to long-term investments here. Constant improvements have given our sawmill the capacity to produce more than 70 million board feet of lumber a year. That's enough to build 56 miles southeast of Flagstaff near Clints Well. Flagstaff also is the headquarters for our wide-ranging timber harvesting operations which supply our Arizona and New Mexico sawmills with sawlogs and our Snowflake, Arizona, paper mill with pulpwood and wood chips. Yes, Flagstaff is important to us in many ways.

GOOD LUCK YOU WILMAS

FIGHT SONG

Wilmas, Wilmas, we love Flaghi
You bring the money, I'll bring the guy
Send those stoners out the door
And don't let a sober jock in.
We love our lizards that is the truth.
We love Madonna and Prince too.
When we go out we wear our pink
And don't care what people think!

Wilmas, Wilmas, FHS!!

WILMA CODE OF ETHICS

1. Never go out with a guy who's hair is longer than yours.
2. Never get in a car without at least one Madonna tape.
3. Always remove spoon from blender before turning it on.
4. Put all heavy metal tapes in the garbage disposal.
5. All major credit cards (mom's and dad's) don't leave home without them.
6. Bandanas are for your hair, not your legs and arms.
7. Think pink and dress preppy!
8. Have your lizard hunting license with you at all times.
9. Never wear a white bathing suit to Oak Creek.
10. Weld hub caps to the wheels of the Wilma Wagon.
11. Always remember the true-meaning of a "WILMA."

Jay Lively Will Be Remembered

Editor, The Sun:

Eulogies and testimonials are, unfortunately, almost exclusively reserved for older men and women who have accomplished during their many years a goal or great moment, or lived their long lives as good people earning the respect and praise of their friends and neighbors.

Recently, however, a young man of few years has passed from us that deserves the honor which is usually only earned after many years of life. Jay Lively was tragically taken from his parents, his family, his classmates and many, many friends, literally at the dawn of the prime of his life.

Certainly, it would be a tragedy were this death to have happened to any young person of 17 years. However, what makes Jay's death something out of the ordinary is that he was not ordinary.

Time and space does not allow a complete recitation of what made Jay so special. He was liked by everyone who met him, not only because of his warm and cheerful nature, but because he was courteous to all, respectful of others, willing to give of himself and did it all without being phony or pretentious. He was also a very skilled athlete, blessed with not only the physical capability, but also the inner drive to strive for excellence and, most importantly, the humility and maturity to have these qualities without making others feel inadequate in his presence.

I have known Jay since he was just a boy and he never failed to address me as Mr. or Sir. His warm and gracious personality was so refreshing, particularly coming from someone so young. I spoke with him a couple of weeks ago about his goals since he was nearing the end of high school and I could tell from the sparkle in his eye when he began to talk of hockey that that was where his dreams and future lay.

His enthusiasm and energy is usually reserved to the young on the brink of the exciting period of their lives when their future as an adult is being planned. However, with Jay, that excitement was infectious to anyone who was around him for very long, regardless of their age.

"Hero" is defined as a person admired for his achievements and qualities. Jay's life affected so great a number of people so deeply that not only he, but his parents are deserving of that title. Someone as special as Jay does not develop in a vacuum and not only Jay but his parents and family have earned our admiration for their achievements and qualities in the rearing of this fine young man. Certainly their love and guidance was instrumental in the creation of his special character.

Of course, there are no words that either describe or soothe the sense of loss that we all feel, particularly his parents and family. That is a loss we will all have to deal with in our own way and at our own time. Having fond memories of him will help somewhat, but certainly cannot replace a lost future.

It is helpful at this tragic time to think of Jay as a hero, one that others, both young and old, can look up to and hopefully emulate and with that thought know that his life was both meaningful and full, be it far too short. Jerry and Dorothy Lively, his parents, certainly must take a great deal of pride in the creation of such a fine example for others to follow. Surely the example of his life will inspire others, particularly the young, to emulate him and thus give a very great significance to his life.

Jay Lively had a special quality that added to the atmosphere of Flag High. The student body and faculty will miss Jay's presence greatly. On behalf of FHS, we would like to thank Jay for the good memories he's left with so many of us.

Mrs. Weidinger,

Hope you have a good summer! You've been a good teacher! See ya next year! I still think I deserve a C!
